FIESTA IN MADRID • 5 NIGHTS 2 PEOPLE

Madrid, the bustling capital of Spain, is a must-see on any Spanish travel itinerary. Though the city is large, the historic center is easily walkable, making getting around from place to place a breeze. Madrid has something interesting to offer all kinds of visitors, from grand palaces and lush parks to famous museums, chic neighborhoods filled with top designer stores, hip cafes, and vibrant, colorful food markets.

Hands down one of the most beautiful palaces in Europe, the Royal Palace of Madrid joins the ranks of Versailles in Paris and Schonbrunn in Vienna. Spend an afternoon visiting the museum of Prado, considered one of the best collections of European art in the world, and home to masterpieces by Spanish artists including Goya, El Greco, and Velazquez. Take a break in one of the cafes of Plaza Mayor, the colorful and elegant main square, along with Puerta del Sol, another beautiful and vital hub of social life in Madrid.

Madrid is a city to visit to soak in the energy that emanates from its streets, discovering neighborhoods that are all very distinct and different from one another and are all equally fascinating, each with their own unique personality. The city is also known for its festive nightlife! Experience this vibrant city with its warmth that will immediately make you feel at ease.

ACCOMMODATION •

Two of you will stay in a 4-star hotel for 5 nights, situated in the city center with breakfast included each morning. All the hotels we use are located near the most important attractions of the city. (Hotel Preciados or similar)

WHILE YOU ARE HERE •

You will get to know the undiscovered parts of the city and the most cherished monuments on a beautiful half day culinary walking tour. Here you will delve right into the heart of Madrid's history and culture while exploring the varied gastronomic it has to offer. Along the way you will learn about the exciting food culture of Spain and sample some of Madrid's most delicious tapas, enjoying different food stops with drinks.

Then on one of your evenings, we have arranged for you to take part in a Flamenco dinner show, where you will enjoy a traditional dinner while enjoying an incredible and emotional performance with prestigious artists. You will combine the best of Madrid during this exhilarating show with traditional music and dancing while dining on a delicious 3-course Spanish meal with drinks included.
