MUNICH & THE BAVARIAN CASTLES • 5 NIGHTS 2 PEOPLE

Bavaria is one of Germany's most popular travel destinations thanks to its mix of impressive scenery, popular festivals, beautiful castles, and distinctive local culture.

While it is well known for its sausages, beer, and lederhosen, this fantastic region has so much more to offer! The picturesque villages, with clusters of wooden houses surrounding onion-domed churches, have a breathtaking backdrop of Alpine lakes, forests, and high mountain peaks, creating a relaxing and beautiful mountain atmosphere.

Munich is the capital of Bavaria, a city that seamlessly combines modern life and tradition thanks to its long and rich history. Munich has exquisite architectural and natural beauty, combining idyllic landscapes, eco-parks, delicious cuisine, mind-blowing art collections, friendly people, and the finest beers in the world.

The city is also the perfect base for exploring the gems of southern Germany, such as the famous Romantic Strasse, the Alps, and its many spa retreats, or crossing the border to Austria to visit beautiful Salzburg.

ACCOMMODATION •

Two of you will stay for 5 nights in a beautiful 4-star hotel situated in the city center with breakfast included each morning. The hotel is located near the most important attractions of the city. (Mercure City Center or similar)

WHILE YOU ARE HERE •

Arrangements will be made for you to embark on a full-day adventure with a private guide who will take you to the foot of the Alps to see the land of the fairy-tale Bavarian castles. You will visit Neuschwanstein Castle, the castle that famously inspired Walt Disney and is considered the most beautiful castle in the world, in addition to making other stops along the way.

Then on another day, you will head out on foot to explore Munich on a private, half-day city tour, visiting Munich's top sites while learning the history behind them. And, of course, you will wrap up your time with a refreshing, delicious mug of Bavarian beer! Prost!!!
