CORTONA

TUSCANY, ITALY

If someone sends a postcard that is a perfect representation of their vacation in Italy, often there will be an image of Tuscany: soft rolling hills, lines of cypress trees, endless vineyards, orderly olive groves, cities of art, majestic castles, and a history that goes back for centuries all await you in Tuscany.

One of its jewels is the charming and noble town of Cortona, which dominates the landscape of the Valdichiana Valley, bordered on the horizon by easy hills and the wide expanse of Lake Trasimeno. Cortona's history spans across time, it was Roman before being a medieval town, and was an important Etruscan center before that.

The hill town is positioned right in the heart of Italy, near Florence, Siena, Orvieto, Assisi and famous wine regions such as Chianti, Montepulciano and Montalcino, thus making it a strategic spot for anyone who wants to experience all that Italy offers, taking brief day trips to explore nearby areas. Cortona is truly a gem, one of the most beautiful hilltop towns in Tuscany, with its unique medieval charm and full of restaurants, bars and boutiques.

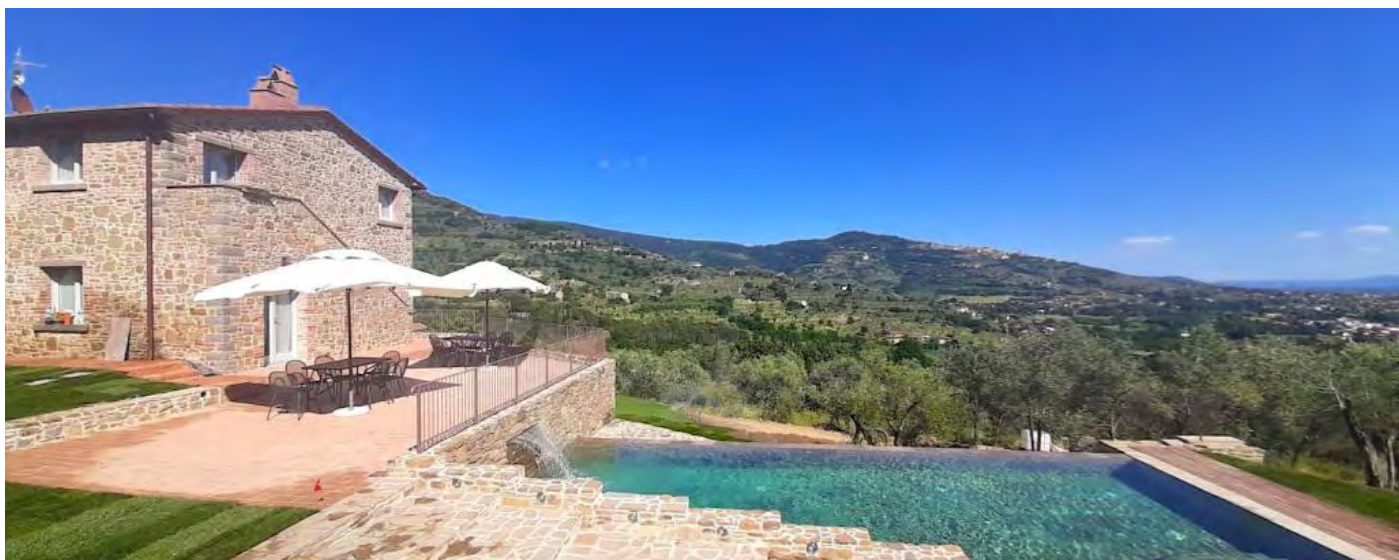

YOUR ACCOMMODATIONS

Amidst the olive trees and the relaxing countryside surrounding the ancient city walls of Cortona, our recently restored original Tuscan properties are ideal for guests who are looking for privacy and tranquility.
