UNDER THE TUSCAN SUN FOR 2 • 6 NIGHTS 2 PEOPLE

Tuscany is the very essence of Italy, celebrated for its awe-inspiring landscapes, rich artistic heritage, exceptional cuisine, and world class wines. Together, these elements create the perfect recipe for living the Italian dream, la dolce vita. Soft rolling hills stretch across the countryside, lined with elegant cypress trees and dotted with endless vineyards, orderly olive groves, and picturesque hilltop towns where warm hospitality is part of everyday life.

During your stay you will experience the spectacular medieval town of Cortona, famously featured in the book Under the Tuscan Sun, as well as in its film adaptation. Perched high above the surrounding valleys, Cortona is one of Tuscany's most charming hill towns, known for its historic architecture, breathtaking views, and relaxed atmosphere. Spend your days wandering through narrow cobblestone streets lined with inviting restaurants, quaint boutiques, artisanal shops, and lively cafès.

From here, you can easily visit some of the region's most iconic destinations, including Florence, Siena, and Assisi. It is also close to some of Tuscany's most renowned wine regions, such as Montepulciano, Montalcino and Chianti, making it the perfect gateway to discover the beauty, flavors, and culture of Tuscany! Cortona's strategic location also makes it an ideal base for exploring central Italy.
